

Please do not weaken Indiana's Telephone Privacy law! I oppose the Consumer Bankers Association's petition to impose the "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers. If a person has an established business relationship with a company, he/she certainly does not need more solicitation calls from that company. Please let the consumer decide when he/she needs to talk to the company. The current law does not stop a business from calling the consumer if it needs to talk with him/her regarding a transaction. The calls they seek would only bombard the consumer with more advertising and solicitations. Indiana's law works--please do not weaken it.
